Dry Canyon Arts Association invites you to see the exquisite miniature book art of Kelley Salber at the SCP Redmond Hotel on August 5th from 4-7pm. Kelley loves to experiment with the book as a sculptural form. Using her passion for texture and color, she imaginatively forms miniature worlds in a variety of forms. Kelley creates interesting new art forms by altering old books. She also delights in inventing her own books as well as building with book board and paper. She has an unsurpassed eye for detail and narrative.
